Sir,

As you are kindly aware, the contempt of Courts Regulation has not yet come into force though placed in the Statute Book, since the necessary notification by the Government has not issued.

May I request you to kindly let me know whether the question of the date of its force has been engaging the attention of the Government?

I have just come across a second instance of a "contempt", in my professional capacity and I should deem it my duty even as a citizen to move my representatives on the Legislatures for an early wage toward the notification, if the subject is not already before the Government. With respectful thanks,

I remain, yours faithfully,
S. Venkatapathaiya
